Mary,

I would note that nearly a week ago I provided information regarding how to properly serve my clients either by certified mail or in person by a process server. The current health order does not restrict these modes of service. Nevertheless, in light of Judge Neff's order, which is the obvious impetus for your email, my clients will make an exception and I have been authorized to accept service via email. I confirm receipt of your two emails.

Thank you,
Heather
